

INSPIRING GLOBAL CHANGE SINCE 1222

SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS AND POLITICAL SCIENCE

ECONOMICS, GOVERNANCE AND DECISION-MAKING

The Bachelor's Degree in Economics, Governance and Decision-Making is a three-year transdisciplinary programme, taught entirely in English and aligned with PPE (Philosophy, Politics and Economics) programmes present worldwide. Designed for curious and globally minded students, the programme bridges economics, political science, philosophy, and law to offer a comprehensive understanding of today's most pressing global challenges - from energy transition and digital transformation to global governance and ethical decision-making.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

Graduates in Economics, Governance and Decision-Making are prepared for a wide range of international careers requiring analytical depth, ethical insight, and policy competence. Their professional paths may start as junior analysts in NGOs, international organizations, public institutions and research centers. The programme provides a solid foundation for roles in governance and global affairs, and serves as excellent preparation for graduate studies in economics, business, politics and philosophy.
